Can civil/Charter litigation effect policy and systemic changes? What is the legacy of Doe v. Metropolitan Toronto (Municipality) Commissioners of Police, [1998] 160 D.L.R. (4th) 697 (Ont. Gen. Div.); and, Hill v. Hamilton Wentworth Police, [2007] 3 S.C.R. 129 as it relates to the tort of negligent investigation?

What impact will R. v. Grant, [2009] 2 S.C.R. 353 and Vancouver (City) v. Ward, 2010 SCC 27 have in deterring police misconduct? What role can litigation play in preventing/addressing police abuses at large scale events like the G-20 summit in Toronto? Is there a place for section 15(1) of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms in police misconduct litigation? [Panel #2]
