

46-566 Program Evaluation

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: October 6, 2017

(Sa171006-5.5.2)

Learning Outcomes	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Plan, design, and implement program evaluation in education, social, business and other organizational settings.	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Compare and contrast various approaches to program evaluation.	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Appropriately select particular evaluation approaches for specific programs. Apply a logic model to developing appropriate program evaluations for a variety of program types.	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D.	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. Recognize all potential stakeholders in a program evaluation and develop and implement program evaluation incorporating their concerns. Act consistently with standards of professional practice in Psychology	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. Solicit information from stakeholders in non-academic organizations for developing program evaluations. Communicate program evaluation respectfully to program stakeholders. Seek and effectively incorporate supervisory feedback.	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. Function in a group and coordinate group activities towards evaluating a program in an organization (non-profit or for-profit).	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H.	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning