

46-580 Psychopathology

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: October 6, 2017

(Sa171006-5.5.2)

Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate A U Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Articulate major issues in psychopathology. Know the criteria and procedures for diagnosing psychological disorders.	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Describe the research strategies commonly employed to address questions about the nature and causes of mental disorders. Apply diagnostic procedures to develop diagnostic formulations.	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Critique the strengths and limitations of current etiological perspectives. Demonstrate basic competence arriving at appropriate diagnostic decisions.	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. Write effective diagnostic reports at an introductory graduate level.	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. Articulate sensitivity to ethical issues in working with individuals who live with psychopathology in its various forms.	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. Effectively communicate diagnostic reports at an introductory level. Demonstrate effective interpersonal and communication skills in diagnostic interviews, and in supervisory and peer interactions. Effectively incorporate supervisory feedback.	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. Work effectively with others to present case studies and seminars.	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H.	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. Describe plans to maintaining competence in diagnosis of psychopathology throughout the professional career.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning