

46-660 Community Psychology

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: October 6, 2017

(Sa171006-5.5.2)

Learning Outcomes	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Describe the community psychology perspective, its origins, and its fundamental values and approaches	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Evaluate the possibilities and challenges of conducting research to study community problems	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Identify and critique the contribution of societal and contextual factors that influence the health and well-being of community members	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D.	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. Recognize the ways in which community psychology interventions have influenced the life of community members Apply their skills and knowledge in community psychology to an initiative (social action project) that addresses a community problem or need	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F.	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G.	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H.	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. Engage in applied practice in a community setting.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning