

46-695 Integrative Psychotherapy II

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: October 6, 2017

(Sa171006-5.5.2)

Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Formulate a personalized integrative models of human functioning.	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Draw upon the clinical research literature to support practical applications.	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Integrate techniques from multiple psychotherapy approaches, including more advanced case conceptualization as applied to diverse syndromes, situations, and populations. Systematically monitor treatment progress and assess treatment outcome incorporating clinical observations, client feedback, questionnaire data, and supervisory feedback.	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. Prepare timely records that are suitable for a clinical and inclusion in a permanent health care record. Formulate a concise case summary. Write professional termination reports.	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. Interact professionally with clients when providing integrative psychotherapy. Demonstrate increasingly sophisticated self-awareness regarding personal strengths and weaknesses as well as interpersonal and technical competencies when acting as a clinician. Provide ethical and professional health care, consistent with standards of professional practice in Psychology	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. Communicate effectively with clients and with other health professionals. Demonstrate interpersonal competence and skills appropriate to the therapist role. Facilitate and participate in effective case conferences.	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. Seek supervision as needed and utilize supervision effectively. Communicate effectively with other professionals involved in patients' care.	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H.	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation

Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
I. Appraise personal strengths and additional training needs as a clinician, in view of developing ones readiness for clinical internship, and in preparation for ongoing maintenance of skills throughout the career.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning