

46-732 Applied Social Doctoral Internship II

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: October 6, 2017

(Sa171006-5.5.2)

Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Apply advanced knowledge acquired in preceding training to the provision of consultation with stakeholders in an applied setting.	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Participate effectively in scientific endeavors in an applied setting(s) under minimal supervision. Access and synthesize scientific literature relevant to the research being conducted. Develop novel research, as required within the internship setting.	B. research skills
C. Demonstrate increasingly sophisticated integration of previously acquired knowledge and experience to the provision of research and other consulting in an applied setting. Demonstrate independence in the provision of effective consulting. Innovate in the provision of applied research and consulting.	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. Analyze data and prepare professional reports for specific purposes and audiences.	D. literacy/ numeracy skills
E. Interact professionally when providing applied research and consulting. Demonstrate self-awareness and willingness to work on interpersonal and technical skills essential to the provision of services as a consultant/researcher on the verge of professional independence. Display consolidation of professional identity within the applied setting. Provide consulting consistent with professional standards in the field. Independently use sound ethical reasoning in applied work. Seek and effectively incorporate supervisory feedback.	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. Demonstrate interpersonal competence and skills appropriate to the advanced practice of Applied Social Psychology.	F. interpersonal and communications skills

Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
Demonstrate advanced skill in communication with stakeholders, supervisors, colleagues, staff, and others involved in the applied setting. Demonstrate advanced skill in communication of applied social psychological research findings to non-academic audiences through formal reports and/or presentations. Participate appropriately within the management hierarchy in the applied setting. Seek and use supervision effectively.
G. Collaborate effectively to develop applied projects. Provide leadership appropriate to the intern role within the non-academic team setting.	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H.	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. Plan to engage in life-long self-assessment of professional competencies.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning