

28-220 The Planned City as a Work of Art

Learning Outcomes

Last Update: June 6, 2014

PDC140508-5.11

Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. identify and comparing different approaches to urban planning in research papers and/or creative projects	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. formulate critical research questions regarding the planned city	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. evaluate the suitability of different theoretical approaches to urban history apply and compare different models of analysis	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. integrate theoretical perspectives into coherent positions and frameworks of analysis	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E.	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. articulate a range of ideas thoughtfully both orally and in writing	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. critically evaluate the work of team members and peers in a respectful and constructive manner	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H. compare creative and artistic approaches to urbanism across historical periods	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. propose avenues for future research and/or creative projects based on the work they have accomplished.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning