

39-432/40-432. Advanced Documentary

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: December 15, 2016

(PDC161215-5.2.3)

Course Learning Outcomes At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Analyse and interpret the history of a documentary film.	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Plan and compose suitable topics for exploration in documentary form. (Also relevant to H.)	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Critically analyze documentary work.	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. Calculate basic frame ratios and frame rates.	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. Interact cooperatively and cohesively with colleagues to plan and construct short videos that themselves exhibit responsible and respectful behavior to peers and the public. (Also relevant to G).	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. Evaluate work of colleagues in a diplomatic and productive manner. (Also relevant to G)	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. Demonstrate supportive on-set behaviour in the making of video productions with team members and the community. (Also relevant to E)	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H. Design and create videos that engage the audio and visual elements of the form, and express a unique and personal perspective. debate the values, meanings, and influence of work of established artists within the documentary genre. (Also relevant to C.)	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. Create video work of advanced technical and creative skill. Apply cinematic tools toward advocacy.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning