

27-285/28-285: Learning by Living in an International Urban Setting

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: April 12, 2013

PDC130315-4.1

Course Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A.	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. assess the nature of evidence built from personal experience and the limits to which inferences may be drawn about many international and other issues	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. apply reflective thinking techniques to define issues and initiate problem solving	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. write personal narratives and build an electronic portfolio	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. interact with people from other cultural backgrounds with respect; discuss and evaluate contrasts between their home society and international experiences for diverse audiences	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. demonstrate a range of appropriate communication skills in small and large group discussions as well as team-based project development and oral presentations	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. develop a contrasting standard to assess the nature of their home society and living environment	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H. incorporate aesthetic elements into their personal reflection and thinking	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. evaluate the role that international experience may play in their education, personal and professional development	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning