69-315. Supply Chain and Border Management
Learning Outcomes
Last Updated: October 10, 2014
(PDC140605-5.4)

Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Define global supply chain management and risk and apply its concepts in developing strategy, planning, implementation, documentation, and the continuous improvement thereof for various business and international trade contexts. Draw relationships between aspects of international trade and global business, including finances, international trade and business law, supply chain and logistics, market research, market entry, business management, and marketing. (Also relevant to C and H).	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Analyze and propose procurement and sourcing processes and strategies, including outsourcing, partnerships and alliances, negotiation, and law compliance with consideration for effective and competitive international business and trade. (Also relevant to D).	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Evaluate decisions regarding manufacturing aspects, such as production and inventory, and their business and trade impacts (e.g. product design, inventory management, warehousing, etc.).	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D.	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. Reflect on learning about global supply chain management and correspondingly the ability to initiate change in current work practices to improve international trade and border management. (Also relevant to I).	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F.	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G.	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H.	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning