

26-397 ENGL 4002 Writing Practicum

Learning Outcomes

December 15, 2017

(PDC171215-5.6)

Course Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise. At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Apply rhetorical concepts of audience, purpose, context, planning, organization, genre, format, and style to writing situations in the larger community.	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Locate and evaluate (for credibility, sufficiency, accuracy, timeliness, etc.) primary and secondary research materials in relation to community-focused projects.	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Use writing as a way to solve problems in community-based projects.	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D.	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. See G	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. Deliver presentations in a professional and collaborative team environment.	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. Plan, manage, and complete individual and group projects for the wider community. [Also relevant to E, F.]	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H.	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning