ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The State of the Strait (SOS) Steering Committee would like to thank our sponsors and collaborators for their generous support of this year's State of the Strait Conference. The proceedings were produced with layout services contributed by CDM and printing services contributed by the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department. Brief descriptions of the mandates or activities of the SOS sponsors are provided in Appendix V.

The invaluable help provided by individuals at the University of Windsor in Web Support Services (Richard Dumala and Sherri Simpson), Office of Public Affairs and Communications (Lori Koutros), and Catering Services (Ann Devine Fantin) is gratefully acknowledged. We thank the volunteers who helped at the conference including: staff and students at the University of Windsor's Department of Biological Sciences, Great Lakes Institute for Environmental Research, and Concurrent Education; Tom Henderson (Little River Enhancement Group); and Sandra Morrison (Great Lakes Science Center, U.S. Geological Survey).

The highly relevant information shared via presentations, posters, and displays was essential to the success of the conference. We thank everyone who attended the conference for their participation, questions and comments. Conference attendees voiced a strong commitment towards a better future for the Detroit River and surrounding areas. They also made some excellent suggestions about how to make this happen. The contributions of attendees, presenters, and conference organizers are all reflected in this report.
