

Women's Studies Emergency Fund

Women's Studies majors and double majors facing a short-term financial emergency are encouraged to apply to the Women's Studies Emergency Fund for financial assistance.

You apply by contacting one of the following Women's Studies faculty members:

Dr. Anne Forrest	Ext. 2315	forrest@uwindsor.ca
Dr. Pamela Milne	Ext. 2406	pmilne@uwindsor.ca
Dr. Veronika Mogyorody	Ext. 2478	mogy@uwindsor.ca
Dr. Charlene Senn	Ext. 2255	csenn@uwindsor.ca
Dr. Christina Simmons	Ext. 2327	simmonc@uwindsor.ca

The faculty member will ask you to complete a short Application for Assistance form in which you briefly describe the problem, state the amount of money needed, and propose a repayment plan. This form is overleaf. It is also available on the Women's Studies website – www.uwindsor.ca/womens

The faculty member will present your Application to the Emergency Fund Committee. Decisions will be made promptly.

Repayment is without interest.

To protect your privacy, the faculty member you contact and the secretary in Women's Studies will be the only people who know your identity.

Women's Studies Emergency Fund
Application for Assistance

Date:

Name:

Contact information:

Telephone:

Email:

Sponsoring faculty member:

Amount requested:

Nature of the emergency:

(Please provide a brief explanation)

Proposed repayment plan:

Do you want the money in cash or by cheque

Date:

Amount received:

Recipient's signature: