

24-117 Drawing for the Theatre

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: May 5, 2009

PDC090401-6.12

Course Learning Outcomes	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
Recognize and identify spatially realistic proportions of angular and contoured forms and arrangements of animate and inanimate objects	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
Demonstrate and utilize drafting and drawing board practices	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
Demonstrate the ability to create para-line and perspective drawings	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
Realistically depict a variety of linear and contoured lines to create still- and life-like objects through a variety of drawing media	D. literacy and numeracy skills
Demonstrate principles of light, shade and shadow and indicate how these effects will change according to a variety of light sources	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
Identify and reproduce basic characteristics of shiny surfaces and mirrored reflections	F. interpersonal and communications skills
Sketch an example of a variety of textures	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
Perform computer-assisted enhancements of student-created projects	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
Perform basic design renderings required for scenic and costume design courses	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning