

SOSC-3200. Working in Digital Communities I

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: May 13, 2016

(PDC160414-4.1)

Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Evaluate and employ dispersed collaboration strategies to explore multi-disciplinary perspectives about digital communities;	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Identify, assemble and evaluate relevant information regarding security, accessibility and social challenges within digital communities;	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Evaluate security, technical, and social challenges within digital communities and propose possible solutions;  Analyze Business Models, and E-commerce infrastructure;	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. Describe the contexts of various E-commerce financial transactions and apply relevant numerical strategies to resolve them;	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. Recognize ethical dilemmas and employ strategies to resolve them;	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. Use clear communication strategies within digital communities;	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. Work within an online dispersed collaboration effectively;	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H. Justify the use of or aversion to traditional E-commerce marketing and advertising concepts;	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. Independently identify areas of personal interest and relate them to digital communities.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning