

SOSC-3210. Working in Digital Communities II

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: May 13, 2016

(PDC160414-4.1)

Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
At the end of the course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Evaluate and employ dispersed collaboration strategies to explore multi-disciplinary perspectives about social, mobile and local marketing;	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Identify, Evaluate, and Record content from a range of digital sources regarding online auctions; mobile applications, news, B2B transactions and dispersed collaborations;	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Evaluate ethical issues within digital communities and propose possible solutions (also relevant to E);	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. Describe the context of various selling strategies within online auctions;	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. Schedule group work periods to meet deadlines; Recognize ethical dilemmas in dispersed collaboration and communicate effectively to resolve them;	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. Use clear communication strategies within digital communities;	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. Identify and evaluate how roles within digital communities are established;	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H. Justify the use of various buying, selling, resource gathering, and bartering strategies within digital communities;	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. Independently identify areas of personal interest and relate them to digital communities.	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning